The 2021 Weissburgunder Reserve offers a clear, intense and elegant bouquet of ripe white and yellow fruits and hints of oak and yeasts. On the palate, this full-bodied Pinot Blanc is dense and creamy but also firmly structured and remarkably long and complex. It's definitely a long-distance runner whose true class will only emerge in years but is also palatable today. The wine was vinified in stainless steel and in barriques (50/50) and was kept on the lees until August last year. 13% stated alcohol. Natural cork. Tasted in January 2023.
